Dear Friends,

It seems right to lose no time in informing you that the Rev. J. P. Gledstone & I landed here yesterday.

Mrs. Butler informed me the day before we left Liverpool that she had forwarded to Boston a letter of mine in which I suggested to her that probably the best thing we could do would be to proceed to Boston, (as there seemed to be so much intelligent interest felt there in the subject which has brought us over), in order that we might take advice as to our course.

However as we found no letter from Boston, & as Mr. Powell, Mrs. Gay, Mr. & Mrs. Hussey, Mrs. Gibbon &c. are prepared at once to take the matter up here, we have arranged to have a little consultation here tomorrow, & have already seen some of those named.

We shall take care to inform you of what is doing, & shall value highly any hints or suggestions as to our proceedings which you may favor us with.

I remain, with much respect, Yours faithfully.

Henry J. Wilson.
